ISNCC CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS GUIDELINES

Purpose

The conference scholarship program has been established to facilitate the dissemination of cancer nursing knowledge to and by nurses in underserved populations – and thereby build capacity in these locations. Scholarship recipients will share their experiences and newly acquired knowledge with colleagues following attendance at the International Conference on Cancer Nursing.

Application Criteria

The nurse applicant must:

- Be a nurse residing in one of the targeted countries.
- Be sufficiently fluent in English to understand the conference proceedings
- Never have received a conference scholarship from ISNCC
- Have an abstract accepted for presentation (oral, rapid fire or poster) at ICCN 2018.

Priority will be given to those applications that address the following:

- Evidence of ability to disseminate information gained from the conference.
- Demonstration of initiative and enthusiasm in cancer nursing.

Conference Scholarships Presentation, Insignia and Funding

- Successful applicants will receive a distinctive award, approved by the ISNCC Nominations and Awards Committee
- The names of the Conference Scholarship winners will be inscribed in a Register of Awards to be held and maintained by the ISNCC Head Office
- Appropriate press releases will be made regarding the Conference Scholarships with the co-operation of the applicant
- Conference scholarships will be offered for either (1) full conference reimbursement for an economy class return airfare to the conference venue, four night's hotel accommodation, meals (up to $50 USD/day) and a complimentary conference registration or (2) Conference registration only.

During the conference, Conference Scholarship recipients will be expected to:

- Agree to write a 500-word article for the ISNCC blog (International Cancer Nursing News) reflecting what the recipient has learned and how they will share their experiences and newly acquired knowledge with colleagues after the conference
- Written report to the ISNCC Board and the organization(s) that have donated to ICCN 2018 Conference Scholarships, as required
- Attend the ISNCC business meeting (held as part of the conference proceedings)
- Attend the ISNCC President's Social
